

International Success for Two West Australian Whites

MadFish Wines was awarded two silver medals at the United States most prestigious wine competition, Star Wine for its 2004 MadFish Premium White and 2004 MadFish Sauvignon Blanc (sold only in the US).

The Star Wine International Competition assesses 2000 wines from over 30 countries; of these only six Australian Chardonnays were awarded medals. The MadFish Chardonnay jointly receiving the highest medal awarded to an Australian Chardonnay. The 2004 MadFish Sauvignon Blanc was one of only three Australian Sauvignon Blancs to be awarded a medal, receiving the best medal for any West Australian Sauvignon Blanc entered.

'Competing against the worlds best, these accolades confirm MadFish's position as a quality Australian producer of wines consumer enjoy drinking,' said owner Amy Burch.

In its second year, the Star Wine International Competition was held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at the Ritz Carlton between 24th-26th February. Over sixty of the worlds top tasters including top sommeliers, Master Sommeliers and Masters of Wines from over 20 countries conducted the tasting.

With a mission to award wines that appeal to the consumer rather than just technical composition, judges were selected from around the world from a variety of professions within the industry.

ENDS

---

Media Contact:
Christine Berger
MadFish Wines
Ph: (08) 9423 1227
cberger@hpw.com.au